

Calhoun: The NPS Institutional Archive
DSpace Repository

---

History of Naval Postgraduate School

Biographies

---

1979

Resume of Meryl Reis Louis, 1979

Louis, Meryl Reis

Monterey, California: Naval Postgraduate School

---

<http://hdl.handle.net/10945/53889>

---

This publication is a work of the U.S. Government as defined in Title 17, United States Code, Section 101. Copyright protection is not available for this work in the United States.

Downloaded from NPS Archive: Calhoun

Calhoun is the Naval Postgraduate School's public access digital repository for research materials and institutional publications created by the NPS community. Calhoun is named for Professor of Mathematics Guy K. Calhoun, NPS's first appointed -- and published -- scholarly author.

Dudley Knox Library / Naval Postgraduate School
411 Dyer Road / 1 University Circle
Monterey, California USA 93943

<http://www.nps.edu/library>

RESUME OF MERYL REIS LOUIS

Meryl Louis was born in Arlington, Virginia on 5 February 1947. She attended UCLA where she majored in business and received the degree of Bachelor of Science in June 1967. She attended the Graduate School of Management at UCLA, receiving a Master of Science in Management Theory in June 1968. At UCLA, she studied organizational behavior and received the Doctor of Philosophy degree in June 1978. Her research concerned the socialization of new members into unfamiliar organizational settings.

She was employed by Arthur Andersen & Company as a management consultant. After a year on the faculty of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, she joined the faculty of the Naval Postgraduate School in June 1979. Her teaching has emphasized theory and practice of organization development, organization theory, and career transitions. Her research has been concerned with analyzing organizational socialization practices, mapping the psychological dynamics of transition experiences, and developing theory on cognitive processes of individuals in organizational settings.

She is a member of the Academy of Management.

